The State of Real Estate

BRIG. GEN. Carter Weldon Clarke, U. S. A., retired, has been appointed resident manager of the Westchester, Washington cooperative and hotel apartment development, according to an announcement made last week by Robert Huyot, president of the Westchester Management Corp.

Gen. Clarke succeeds Janusz Ilinski who has become vice president of the City Investing Co. of New York.

An electrical engineer by profession prior to his entry in the military service, General Clarke was public relations officer for the Signal Corps for ten years. At the time of his retirement he was Commanding General, Southwestern Command, Army Forces in the Far East. He was directly in charge of the operation of 22 Japanese resort hotels, rest hotels and recuperation centers for troops returning from Korea.
